

Seminar

Pedagogical Media Theory – Blogging and its possible relation to education
Nr. 41-61.030
Sommersemester 2009

Oral Examination Procedure

The idea of the final exam is to see/show what you've learned during the semester, where are your strengths and which are fields where further development is needed. One focus will be to see how (Micro)blogging influenced your learning. During this oral exam you are asked to present things from your blog/portfolio. This can be public posts or private posts, just as you like.

To pass the exam I will try to give you some orientation.

1. Make sure all Tasks are done.
